

Child labour

Role play agenda

Introductions

Ask all the delegates at the meeting to introduce themselves with some information about their name, age and profession.

Presentation

Ask each of the delegates what they think about children working long hours in the textile industry. Encourage them to discuss this and consider each others' arguments.

Negotiation

Ask each of the delegates what in their opinion would be necessary to stop the use of child soldiers in the textile industry in the area. Encourage the delegates to be selfish and think of what is needed for themselves.

Conclusion

Finally, encourage the delegates to come to an agreement that everyone is comfortable with that will end the use of child labour in the area.
