Wear something WOW for

WORLD ORPHAN WEEK

WOW stands for WORLD ORPHAN WEEK (9-15 February 2009) during which everyone is invited to wear something WOW for a day to help orphaned and abandoned children by donating £1 to SOS Children. By participating, you and your school or group can give orphans around the world a mother, a home and a family...for life.

How to WOW...

WOW gives you an opportunity to look at issues concerning Global Citizenship or just have fun and be creative by wearing something WOW! WOWing is easy, you can:

Dress up extraordinarily for a day and donate - perhaps inspired by one of the 123 countries where SOS Children works

Combine dressing up with one of our complete SOS lesson plans to make your WOW day educational

Use our cross-curricular SOS lesson ideas and resources to create your own lesson plans

Register at www.soschildren.org or complete the form opposite and receive your free WOW pack.

Choose online what resources you would like from our downloadable files to help you have a great WOW!

We are also pleased to have the support of:
